

Dua List

Ya Allah – All praise is due to You. Allahumma Salli Ala Sayyidina Muhammadin Wa-alahali Wa-Sabibi Wa-Sallim
HasbiyAllah wa ni'mal Wakeel. HasbiyyAllahu laa ilaha illa anta subhanaka inni kuntu min adhaalimeen. Ya Muqaffibal Qulub, thabbit qalbi 'ala deenik.

Hasbi Allahu la ilaha illa Huwa, alayhi tawakkaltu, wa Huwa Rabbul arsh il adheem Allahuma inni asaluka al-afwa wal afiyah fi-deeni wa dunya walakhirah.

Allahumma innaka 'afuwun tukhibbul'afwa fa'fu'annee. Rabbana hab lana min azwajina wa dhuriyyatina qurrata A'yunin waj'alna fil-muttaqina imama.

Ya Karim, bless me, my family, loved ones and all muslims with everything good the Prophet (saws) asked for himself and his Ummah, and protect us from all bad the Prophet (saws) sought protection from. Ya'Allah, accept our siam, qiyam, salah, duas and good deeds. We ask You for knowledge that is of benefit, a good provision and deeds that will be accepted.

Ya'Allah, we are thankful for the food, air, water, qur'an and everything (seen/unseen) you have provided for us. Thank you for blessing us with our eyes to see, our ears to hear, our hands to use, our feet to walk, our nose to breathe, for the saliva we use to swallow. Thank you for our health and everything we take for granted.

Ya'Allah, place light on our right, light on our left, light before us, light behind us, light above us, and light beneath us. Place light in our hearing, in our eyes, and let there be light in our hearts. Guide us all to your Light and allow us to become vessels for your Light, and allow us to experience your Light in the akhirah.

Ya Mujib (the Responsive), for all the hardships we may face, let there be many eases, the most beautiful eases. Help us remember that our trials/tribulations are a test of our faith and a mercy from You and that you are always near and loving. Give us patience to learn from our mistakes and struggles we go through. Help us as a community to be there for those in need. Ya'Allah, many of our friends and families – people of the community are going through trials and tribulations. Guide and protect them – for you are the Helpful, the Guide, and the Protector – the Protecting Friend. Protect those who are unjustly persecuted and oppressed. Help them to be freed from the oppression that they face and accept all their duas bringing them ease. Unite the ummah, protect the poor, hungry, thirsty, sick, oppressed, and homeless Muslims and relieve them of their suffering. End the ignorance, violence, persecution, and oppression. Ya Allah give the muslims freedom and strong Iman. Ya Allah take care of their needs and end their suffering. Ya Khabir (All Knowing) - Protect those who are unjustly persecuted and oppressed. Help them to be freed from the oppression that they face and accept all their duas, bringing them soon a beautiful ease after such hardship. Ya Allah Guide & Protect the Muslims in America from misunderstanding & islamophobia.

Ya'Allah, Bless all of our leaders with patient and righteous families, strength and the wisdom to do what is beneficial for the Ummah, and help keep the community on the straight Path. Ya Allah, Bless ALL the volunteers who give of their time tirelessly, a beautiful abode in the akhirah. Bless ALL the donors who give abundantly of their wealth, a magnificent place in the afterlife. Bless the community and its school, its teachers and staff with your Rehman, Protection and Grace. Bless the surrounding communities, cities, and countries with Peace, Goodness, and love. May those that are fighting in Your Cause be justly rewarded and be given swift and decisive victories.

Ya Wakeel (The Trustee), Bless all of our Islamic institutions with Halal financial stability (Fawakih, ADAMS, Zaytuna, Bayyinah, Deen Intensive). Bless them with righteously guided leaders that lead with integrity and commitment, knowledge and wisdom. Help us to be better neighbors to our Non-Muslim community. Make each and every Islamic school excel academically in addition to producing Muslims of good character.

Ya Allah, guide those who have strayed from the path back to the straight path. Forgive the Muslim Ummah all of our sins and Guide us on the Straight Path.

Ya Allah, gift us with khushoo in our prayers, give us the tafveeq to make dua in abundance to You and bring peace in our hearts/lives by experiencing the sweetness and joy of worshiping You as if we see You.

Ya Waliyyu (The Friend, Patron and Helper), help our loved ones suffering from mental illness get the right treatment to restore their peace of mind and tranquility of the heart. Grant their families patience, Ya Sabbur, and give them ease after this hardship. Protect those who may be suffering from depression and give them help and guidance to fight this invisible disease and to look to you for inner strength. Ya Latif, help us get over our depression and grant us peace of mind and tranquility of the heart.

Ya'Allah, protect our parents who are getting older. Keep them healthy and active and let them turn to you for guidance and strength. Give us the strength and patience to take care of our parents, friends, and family.

Ya'Allah protect our loved ones who have passed away. Ya'Allah we pray You forgive them of their sins, their graves are wide and open - with a window to jannah, they answered the questions asked by the Angels in the grave, their good deeds outweigh their bad deeds, they are given the Book in their right hand, and reunited with all their loved ones in Jannatul Firdous. When our time comes, let us have the same.

Grant all families rahmah - rahmah between the hearts of spouses, in the hearts of parents for their children/children for their parents, and rahmah in all of us towards any family member.

Ya'Allah, help those who are single to find spouses best for them and let them know when the right person has come along. Bring them in a marriage where they increase each other in iman; have love, understanding and mercy; finding contentment through coming close through You (swt).

Ya'Allah, help those who are contemplating marriage to get clear guidance on if the person they are talking to should be their spouse. Bring the person to them in marriage if it will be the best match for their dunya (compatibility, partnership, love, commitment) and akhirah (a source for coming closer to You). If they are not, then take the person away and make them content with it. Make this clear sooner rather than later so that they can move forward as You have decreed.

Ya'Allah, help those who are married to stay married, love, care, understand one another, have mercy towards each other, be content and come together through You (swt). Bring them closer to each other, and align their goals/values so they are on the same path that brings them closer to you. May their marriages only become stronger with time. Help those amongst our family and friends that are having challenges in their marriages to find peace and happiness in their unions, as You are the Opener of hearts, Ya Fattah. Strengthen their marriage through the years and guide them on Your (swt) path, helping them make decisions that are best for them, their families and livelihood. Take out any hatred, anger and frustration from their heart, and fill it with love and contentment. Surround them with Your love and support from family/friends. Help them to reach out and get guidance that is beneficial to them.

Ya'Allah, help those who are single parents to have strength and patience while raising their children. Bring them a spouse soon of good character who is good to them and their family and shows them marriage in a better light. For the children, provide a stable, good parent figure who is kind to them. Ya Allah, let this happen for them soon to make the transition easier.

Ya - Muhyiy (Giver of Life), help those who want to grow their family to be able to bear children who are healthy and pious. Reward their patience, with children that will bring coolness to their eyes and be a source of peace and happiness to them. If they can't bear children, allow them to adopt or provide foster care if that is what is best for them and the children. You know what is best.

Ya'Allah, help all the sisters who are pregnant to have a peaceful pregnancy, successful delivery, and for both the mother and child to be strong and healthy. Make them good parents with children who are the light of their eyes and peace in their hearts.

Ya Allah, help those that are close to her who are going through difficulties in matters of marriage, child-rearing, illnesses, relationships. Help them in their quest to get clear answers, and absolve them of sins as they endure hardships and tests.

Ya'Allah, help our loved ones to be able to raise their children as upright, strong, and confident Muslims. Children who grow to be successful increase in their Iman, and take care of their parents when they grow old. Make them the best parents to their children, especially as they're growing up and stepping into this world independently. Protect them from all evil, harm and haram, may they never stray from Islam; never doubt their religion even for a moment. Surround them with righteous friends, and keep bad influences and bullies away from them. Give these children the correct answers to their questions about Islam and the world and make them understand and appreciate the deen. Keep these kids confident, yet extremely humble and unselfish. Make them peaceful and loving, not hurtful or hateful. Ya Allah preserve their Iman, guide them on the straight path, give them good companionship, save them from lack of haya, save them from drugs, alcohol, promiscuity, homosexuality, bad adab, and apostasy. May the childrens' bond with their parents get even stronger over the years, as they become teenagers, spouses, parents. Bless them with a wonderful Muslim spouse who loves them in and out and treats them like an equal partner, allowing them to raise another generation of even stronger muslims, and make them a sadaqa jariya for us on the Day of Judgment.

Ya Allah, keep my family and loved ones blessed, healthy and under your protection and guidance. Provide what is best for them and give them peace in Your (swt) love.

Ya Allah, help us with all of our endeavors (business, personal and spiritual) and guide us firmly and easily to the ones that are best for us/our deen/our family and our akhirah. Let us come to your river and take in abundance in the way you have deemed for us. If we are moving towards an endeavor that is good for us, make it good for us and if it is not, take it away from us and make us content. Allow us to clearly understand what endeavors are good for us and to always go into these endeavors for YOUR sake. Bring barakah in these endeavors for our dunya and akhirah and be of a benefit to our loved ones and humanity.

Ya'Allah, forgive us for the sins we commit throughout the day and into the night. Help us to act righteously towards one another, forgive one another and not hold anything against each other on the Day of Judgment. Give us love, care, and understanding of one another. Let us think good of one another and abstain from backbiting, hate, and bad thoughts. Reign in our nafs, make good our thoughts, actions, ibadah. Purify our hearts.

Ya'Allah, help us to spread the word of your deen, to be strong and confident Muslims and to never have a doubt in our thoughts or hearts of You and your word. Protect us from ignorance, greed, hypocrisy, arrogance, all diseases of the heart and the ways and whisperings of Shaytan. Help us humble ourselves, be modest and turn to you in every way possible. Ya Allah, save us from Dhajjal and all other fitnas including ourselves and our nafs. Fill our hearts with Your love and bring us closer to You (swt).

Ya Allah, forgive us of our sins and guide us on the straight path. Keep our hearts clear of black marks and help us to continue to be better muslims, better believers, better people. Let us lead our lives in your Pleasure, not in your Anger, and help us to always hold on to 'Your Rope' and never stray from the right path.

When our time of death comes, make death easy for us. Let our soul pass easily and painlessly. Ya Rabb, let us die in your Pleasure with a husnay khatema - with all our sins forgiven and the shahada our last words before our death. Be with us when we are given ghusl when we are shrouded, when we are carried to our graves, when we have dirt thrown on us, when our loved ones walk away and leave us behind. Allow us to answer the three questions correctly and confidently. Widen our graves for us and make it a part of Jannah for us. Bring us companionship always so we never feel lonely, in the world, in the grave and in the hereafter. Raise us on the Day of Judgment with the ummah of the Prophet (saws), hand in hand with all our Prophets (as), with the Righteous Companions (as), with our families and loved ones. Hide our shames and sins on that day, keep us under the Shade of Your Throne, when there is no shade but Yours. Give us our books in our right hand and let it far outweigh the bad. Let us cross the sirat without even a moment of touching, seeing or feeling the hellfire and enter us into Jannatul Firdous. Grant us Jannah with no reckoning, 'give us a house in nearness to Thee in Jannah', let us drink from the Pond of the Prophet (saws), and make us worthy of the ultimate reward.

Ya'Allah, you have given us so much - make us more grateful than we are... to be in constant remembrance of You, always trusting in You and allow us to worship You in every way possible.

Ya Allah, you are the One, the Only, the Most Merciful the Most Beneficent, the Kind, the Lord of the Worlds, the Knower of all things, the Infinite, the Everlasting, the Eternal, the Most Forgiving, the Self-Subsisting, the First, the Last, the Giver of life, the Creator of death. Allahumma Saffi Ala Sayyidina Muhammadin Wa-alahafi Wa-Sabibi Wa-Saffim.

Ameen.
